Whether the ~~for~~ extenuating circumstances urged by Mr Krishnasami Row are sufficient to exonerate him from blame for the deficiencies in his work in the Bangalore City municipality is a matter for consideration.

Under the orders of 8-10-09 ~~his~~ his promotion was deferred for a period of 6 months from the 1st April 09. The Dy Comm's present letter + the Chf Engr's opinion for the half year ending ~~31st~~ Dec 09 show that the work has been of an approved character.

Mr Krishnasami Row ~~has~~ may be promoted to the 4th class from the 1st Jany 1910, if his prayer for a reconsideration of the order of Oct 09 is not to be granted.

Dear Sir,

With reference to Government Orders of the 8th Octr 1909 marked Confidential which you kindly sent to me for information I beg to state that ever since plague appeared in Bangalore ie since 1898, the affairs of the Municipality were anything but Satisfactory. Even demand notices had not been issued in many cases, for the years in which municipal taxes were due. I was appointed Vice President of the Municipality in July 1906 for nearly 14 months out of the above period I was in charge of the Conservancy also ie till the Health Officer newly appointed Appointed came & relieved me of the above work. The land Acquisition Cases of the City and the Extensions were given to me and I had to dispose of them. Bangalore being the Head Quarters of Govt duties other than Municipal were often Entrusted to me and I had to attend to them also. You may well imagine how I can be held responsible for arrears that accumulated from the said period viz 1898.

Even in the case of Excess water Charges the bills which generally came late from the Water Works Department had been bundled up without even serving the notices of demand which is Essential to the taking of any further steps under the Municipal Regulation. The various difficulties that were in the way of collecting these Excess water charges I represented to Govt when I was Vice President there and I suggested the amendment of the rules that then Existed which was accordingly done by Govt

A perusal of the above reasons may show that the accumulation of arrears Embezzlement of Collections and the remission of Excess water charges were the Effect of local Conditions and not to any default in prompt Collection.

You are not unaware, Sir, of the nature of the duties of a Vice President and if you are satisfied

Satisfied of the reasons I have above assigned I request you to recommend to Govt to kindly reconsider their Order depriving me promotion for six months.

Ever since I was transferred to Mysore I have been doing the Acquisition work of the Trust Board in addition to my municipal duties without any extra allowance.

Very obdt yours
M. G. Krishnaswamy Rao
Vice President
